HAVE A REST — SOCIALLY RESPONSIBLE BRAND

We believe that not only
travel and people can be beautiful,
but deeds as well

The Have A Rest team believes that not only travel and people can be beautiful, but deeds as well.

That is why we together with "Tvoya Opora" Foundation and "Charity Weekend" with Masha Efrosinina added to the Have A Rest suitcases color palette a special Ultra Violet color (the color of charity), which is designed to make your travels not only stylish and comfortable, but also help those who need your beautiful deeds the most.

WHEN BUYING A HAVE A REST SMART SUITCASE OF THE «ULTRA VIOLET» COLOR, YOU BECOME PART OF THE CHARITY PROJECT.

- 50%
OF PROFIT

from the sales of such suitcases were directed to help children with severe pathologies at the Institute of Pediatrics, Obstetrics and Gynecology.

I AM MY OWN AMULET: HAVE A REST'S CERVICAL CANCER AWARENESS CAMPAIGN

February 4th is World Cancer Day. Cervical cancer is the world's second leading cause of death among young women with malignant tumors. Every year, there are 528,000 new patients with cervical cancer and 266,000 deaths from this disease worldwide. According to statistics, 75% of cervical cancer cases can be avoided if diagnosed in time.

IN A VIDEO WITH UKRAINIAN OPINION LEADERS, WE URGE WOMEN TO VISIT A GYNECOLOGIST FOR AN ANNUAL COMPREHENSIVE CHECK-UP.

Have A Rest, in collaboration with Leleka maternity hospital and SAYYA, strives to reduce these numbers. The purpose of the video is to remind women to rely only on themselves when their health depends on it.

Have A Rest founder Alina Dolinina, the Head of the Olena Pinchuk Foundation Olga Rudnieva, Cultnaked founder Mary Furtas, blogger Masha Timoshenko, Imagehouse Design Studio founder Faina Tedeeva, The Village producer Nati Avdeeva, Guzema Jewelry founder Valeriya Guzema, and The Coat designer Katya Silchenko appeared in the video.

We truly believe that animals make people better. So we have dedicated our new collection of accessories to pets. The designer and illustrator Anastasia Borko made the unique prints for this collection.

It includes a cosmetics bag and a protective case for luggage. Both of them are available in two designs:

Cats — for purr-lovers

Dogs — for those who love loyal looks.

YOU ARE DOING A GOOD DEED WHILE BUYING
ITEMS FROM THE #PAWSINTHEAIR COLLECTION

WE DONATE
50%

of each sale to the Happy Paw foundation that assists stray animals.
